DANNY MIZE

MA, MRE

Drawing on his background in hospital and hospice chaplaincy, church ministry and grief support, Danny serves the Street Auto Group (Street Toyota and Street Volkswagen) as a corporate chaplain – a role the company calls Staff Support. For the past four years, since his retirement from full-time work, Danny has made himself available to support the employees of the two dealerships through in-person visits, calls, texts and e-mails.

Danny and his wife settled in Amarillo fourteen years ago. Their family includes two sons, a daughter-in-law, and a precious 18-month old grandson. In addition to his work with the two dealerships, Danny continues his part-time ministry with the Fellowship of Believers church in Hereford, where more than nine years ago he answered the call to “fill in for two Sundays.” Prior to moving to Amarillo, Danny was the co-founder, and for ten years, the Executive Director of the family grief support center in Edmond, Oklahoma, called The Kids’ Place – founded after the Oklahoma City bombing of 1995.
